“ I could go on for days about how good a man My Uncle Jimmy Wayne was and what an infectious laugh and smile he had. But I'll share the most Blessed memory of all and that is of the day he was Baptized. Although he was very sick he wanted to be Baptized in the Baptismal Pool and with Help in because of his sight He did just that. He looked at My Father Buck Jones pulled him closer to hug him and said It's gonna be ok Brother I'm gonna be fine. Like he knew his Journey would be coming to an end soon, we none realized the end would be so soon. I Personally take solace in knowing that not Only Our Heavenly Father but My Grandparents, Uncle and Aunt met him at those Pearly Gates to Greet him. He's one Lucky man free from pain and in The Holy Land with Our Heavenly Father and those Loved ones who left us years ago, Hallelujah. I just Pray he passed my message along that I privately spoke to him on his final day here on earth. (Never take Life for Granted, Spend time with Loved One's and above all else "Make Your Dash Count".) Rest in Paradise Uncle Jimmy Wayne I Love You and Will Miss You. Love Michelle

“ My prayers and thoughts are with the family of Jimmy Wayne. He was a thoughtful person and never met a stranger. May God wrap his loving arms around all of the loved ones that are left behind until you unite with Jimmy again at Home. God did not want him to suffer any longer and God knows well.
