“ I had the privilege of being Ms Jimmie’s friend for many years. (she had been friends with my Aunt Fran for many years before) she would bring me homemade peanut brittle every year for Christmas. It was the best I have ever eaten. Ms Jimmie was the sweetest soul, I always told her I wanted to be her when I grew up! Although, I have not seen her as much the past couple of years, I thought of her often. I will truly miss her sweet smile and kind nature.

I loved you very much Aunt Jimmy. So glad I got to tell you what you meant to me on our last visit in Prattville a few years ago. We never know when we won't see each other again on this earth. God be with all her kids and grandkids. I love you too.
