“ Dear Raines Family, I am sorry to read of the passing of your loved one. Words don't always ease the pain when you are grieving the death of a loved one, but I hope you will find comfort in Jesus' promise of the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) when he will raise up those who are now sleeping in death (John 11:11), restoring them back to life on the renewed Paradise earth (John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43). What a wonderful blessing to look forward too. Until then, may God (Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

“ Larry and Jackie, Tiffany and all the Raines family, I was so saddened to hear about Wes. It is never easy to let our loved ones go, but be assured that Wes is now in the loving arms of our Lord. I will continue to keep all of you in my thoughts and prayers . Take your strength from the Lord and comfort from all your friends and family.
With heartfelt sympathy,

“ Larry, Jackie, and family,
I am praying for each of you as you mourn Wes' passing. Rejoice in your faith in that Wes is no longer suffering and has a perfected body in Heaven. Larry, you are a great example of a Godly father, providing for and loving his wife, children, and grandchildren. I am honored to be your friend.
In Christ,
Chris

“ *Mrs. Raines,
I am so sad to learn about your loss. I will be praying for you and your daughter. I know that God has a special plan for your husband.
I hope that you remember to keep good memories of your husband in your heart. I miss you and I love you. I will give you a big hug when you come back to school.*
