“ Big John was my cousin. Remembering back to when he was 6 or 7 and I was 5 or 6 playing out in my grannies back yard... somehow I ended up with John's tooth print in my head! Lol! He was a sweet soul. Praying for his family that the Lord will give you his peace.

“ This is hard for me to believe to be true. When I met John at Maxwell AFB what amazed me the most about him is that everyone knew his name. Every place I ever went with John someone would always know his name. I wanted to be so much like him, and he was a hero of mine. Thank you John “The General in the Army of Love” Rowe for all the wonderful memories I have from my time at Maxwell AFB. TIL Valhalla

“ First time I met John he introduced himself like this. “John Rowe, EMT, chicks dig me.” He had all kinds of funny things that he would say. We had lots of fun times. He was a brother to me and I am going to miss him so much. Tons of others feel this way too.
