“ John was a very humble man who was always willing to help a friend or neighbor. Sometimes it was getting a car to crank or cutting a tree limb that fell. My granddaughter and myself were blessed by him. Rest in peace Mr. John

“ John will be missed. He was loved deeply by his family and held in high regard by many friends. I know in my heart that he was loved by God and believe that he will now be in heaven, wherever that might be. My heartfelt sympathy and prayers for comfort and peace go out to Nancy, Matthew and Leta, and my dear friend Sandi. May your happy memories, with time, help to heal the pain of your loss.
