

John Russell Williams

September 25, 1963 - June 24, 2014

WILLIAMS, John Russell “Rusty”, 51, quietly passed away at UAB Hospital in Birmingham, Alabama on Wednesday, June 24, 2014.

Rusty was born on September 25, 1963 and spent the majority of his life as a resident of Alabama. He was twice-divorced and the proud father of three, Matthew Williams of Prattville, Veronica Brown of Montgomery and Josh Williams of Millbrook. He was also a disabled veteran after having served in the Air Force.

In addition to his children, he is survived by his father and stepmother, Johnny and Brenda Williams; his brothers, Michael Williams, Randy and Tracy Thompson; his sister, Cheryl Estes and several nieces, nephews, extended family members and friends. Rusty was preceded in death by his mother and stepfather, Sue and Sunny Thompson; and brother, Scott Thompson.

Ironically, as opposed to his death, Rusty’s living years were anything but quiet. He was strong-willed and rebellious, often breaking the rules versus abiding by them. Instead of simply driving a car or truck, he would often surpass the speed limit and wreck them or spin them on dirt roads, just for fun. Rusty was naturally accident-prone and, as a result, barely cheated death on numerous occasions.

His oldest brother, Michael, described him as “a character who drank his sweet tea by the gallon and smoked his cigarettes by the case.”

However, Rusty was also known as a caring and sensitive man. He was most proud of his role as a father and secondary to that, thoroughly enjoyed family gatherings. He was an uncle and cousin to many and relished in entertaining everyone by cooking, pranking the kids or delighting everyone with his latest tales.

Instead of merely leaving his mark on this world, Rusty left a dent.

All services will take place at Prattville Memorial Chapel this Saturday, June 28, 2014. Visitation for family is from 1:00-2:00, visitation for friends is from 2:00-3:00 and the funeral is at 3:00. He will be buried at Rocky Hill Cemetery in Autaugaville, AL. immediately preceding the funeral.
