“ I used to babysit Joe and Sara when they were very young and lived in St. Louis Park. They were always really easy kids--well-behaved. Bob and Shirley, I am praying for you, Sara and Joey. May you find God's peace during this difficult time.

“ "Joey" was a great childhood friend and an even better hockey teammate when he lived in St. Louis Park, MN. His love for the game was infectious. It made everyone that much better. He always had time for me to help with my puck control. Off the ice Joey and his family were loving, caring people. I was sick and out of school one day and Bob "Mr." Larson came over with a pair of top notch hockey gloves to cheer me up and also for my birthday. This is where Joe got his character from. One of the best kids I knew, and definitely the best hockey player I ever knew. RIP old friend. 😊

“ I didn't know Joe as well as most, but I remember playing lawn darts with him at Jeremy Stuber's house and having a blessed time. I also knew him from church and enjoyed his company and Stacey's company very much. I miss you already Joe. You were a blessing to us. See you in heaven friend.
