“ When I first visited Hunting Ridge Church Joyce passed down a sweet written note introducing herself and welcoming me to church. The note touched my heart and I knew then on that Sunday what a special lady she was. I will miss my sweet friend; her smiling face, the hugs that filled my heart with joy, our exchanged note cards, and prayers Even though I was acquainted with Joyce for a short period of time it was a gift to love and to have known her love. Condolences to Brother Gary and the family for your loss. Prayers that the light of Jesus' love will shine upon each of you giving comforting peace at this time.

“ I will always remember Mrs. Joyce as a lady with a kind heart. She loved people. I always felt drawn to her in church. I know the Lord meant for our paths to cross and she gave great hugs. She always asked about my family and how they were doing and always let me know she was praying for us. I will surely miss her sweet face. She was a blessing that I look forward to seeing again one fine day.
