“ I give my sincere condolences to the Wilkinson family. The passing of a loved one is a very difficult thing to experience. I hope you and your family can find comfort in God's word, the Bible. In it, he promises that "death will be more" in the near future (Rev. 21:4). May this assist you during this grieving period.

“ Nanny remember many, many years ago when Papa grab my blue jeans thinking they were his and wonder what you had done to his pants and he thought that hanging them over the floor furance had strunk them. Just remember he was my Pop before he became Papa and what a wonderful name for a wonderful man. He will always be my giant among man.
