“ I am so very sorry to hear about Tunk's passing. We were girls together and I have such wonderful memories of spend the nite parties at her house and at my house. In winter, we always put an extra blanket on the bed, then turned a huge floor fan on the bed and slept with one leg out of the covers so that "we could appreciate the warmth of the blanket", or so we told ourselves.

Tunk made a beautiful bridesmaid in my wedding and we laughed because Reid took all the pictures at my wedding in exchange for a washing machine for Tunk! It worked out perfectly for our fathers.

I cannot help but laugh at the many memories of us together and I will always hold a special place in my heart for Tunk.

With much love, Ruth Glover Graham (Baby Ruth) & Charlie Graham
