“ Dear Family, I am so very sorry about the loss of your dear loved one. May the thought at Job 33:25 give you comfort in knowing that Mrs. Taylor will return to the days of her youth and be able to enjoy life without the infirmities of old age. My sincere condolences to you.

“ To my family, my heart goes out to you all, and she will be greatly missed. My memories with her will forever be with me. And my greatest regret was not seeing her in time. She was kind and funny, and was always there for me when I needed her, that's what family is for. She has done her time on this earth, and has earned her wings. Fly high Aunt Kat, fly to your family whom wait for you. And know that there is grace and love and no more pain. I will miss you, and hope we all will see each other again one day. I love you all, and may God give you strength and peace during this time. With all my love...DeeDee Lynn Smith
