“ I just read about the recent death of your loved one. The Bible calls death an enemy and that is certainly how it strikes us, as an enemy. Take comfort in knowing that the loving God who created us did not want us to suffer in tears of pain. “He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people He will take away from all the earth, for God himself has spoken [it].” Isaiah 25:8. My thoughts and prayers are with you in your time of grief. May your memories, as well as these few words, bring you a measure of comfort.

“ My Daddy and Kenny were the best of friends, closer than brothers. Growing up, Kenny was like my second father. I will never forget all the great times our families had together. I know two great men are having one awesome reunion and playing one heck of a poker game! Love you Kenny! Love and hugs Janice, David, Steve, Paula and your families.
