“ Kim, when able, you were always there trying to help others; touching many people through your experiences and faith. An excellent Respiratory Therapist, knowledgeable and caring. Remembering our families together at the Star's baseball games and Spring Valley Beach. Kim, we all know, your greatest love, joy and pride are in your loving daughters, Erin and Anna, which will remain eternal. Kim, no more sickness and pain, rest in peace. Erin and Anna, your Mom loved you both so very much. She was proud of you both and each individually. Remember the good times: In every memory... love lives on. We are thinking of both girls during this difficult time.

“ I was blessed to have Kim in my life. I always told her she was a half-pint size with a heart of gold. To Erin and Anna you two were her pride and joy. She loved you to the moon and back. I pray that God wraps his loving arms of comfort around you from this day forth. Well Half-Pint as the saying goes, "it's not what you take when you go it's what you leave behind". Thank you Kimberly Wright Lee for priceless memories.

“ Kimberly was simply amazing. Though we never got to physically meet each other, we spoke frequently on the phone, in text and through Facebook messages. She always had my back. No matter what. Her heart was so big, and so full of love. The contributions she made to this world will not be forgotten. She touched many of our souls, and surely left footprints on our hearts. My deepest sympathies to her family.

“ Kim was an awesome woman. She could put a smile on anybody's face. I didn't know her outside of Facebook, but the time I did know her was great. She will be missed dearly by many. Prayers to her family and friends. hugs

Love always,
Ashley & family 💕

“ After the tears have dried and the goodbyes have been said, all we have to hold onto are the happy memories that we've shared with Kim, this is what keeps her alive in our hearts and in our minds, and she will continue to live on, through us. My condolences to Kim's family.

“ Kimberly was an inspiration to me. She lived life to the fullest and never sweated the small stuff. I will miss her so much. She always tried to teach me to love myself. I was looking so forward to meeting her in the future but I guess I will just have to wait a bit longer. I will miss her beautiful smile and her wonderful sense of humor. I'll never forget you Kim. You'll live in my heart forever. Roll Tide Roll!!

“ We didn't realize we were making memories, We were just having fun. Each day was a memory of fun and adventure that will forever be in my heart. You touched so many so deeply and tenderly, Kimberly. As I sit and remember some of our conversations, I burst out laughing, and then think, God has you now. No more pain, no more suffering my friend.

Our memories of the ocean will linger on long after our footprints in the sand are gone.

*Love you long time!
