“ Oh how saddened I am to hear of my sweet friend Kim's passing. But I know she's at her eternal home with Jesus. From our children, Lauren and Landon being in the same Sunday school class at 2 years old, Kim and I became friends. At least 5 plus summers, she and I met at the church and planned for and then taught vacation Bible school for our children. I LOVED volunteering at church together with Kim. She was kind, humble, Godly, smart, intelligent and helpful in any way she chose to. I will always treasure that I was blessed to know Kim. She is leaving a huge hole in their home. Gil, Ben, Lauren and Emily we will pray for God's peace for your wonderful family during these very tough and extremely sad days.

“ Mrs. Kim is a selfless person. Mrs. Kim will always be remembered for love for Christ, her love for her husband, and her love for her children. She truly was the best neighbor that we could have ever had and she will be missed dearly. She told me she hopes that her girls end up like me as they grow older, but I can only aspire to be like her and be able to have the courageous faith that she had on a day to day basis.
