“ I know it's a difficult time for Kim's family, and I hope time will heal your pain. It's also a difficult time for her friends that loved so much. Kim was so easy to love, she was fun, energetic, exciting, open minded, excepting, and non-discriminating, Kim just made everyone feel like they are okay. Kim was one of my dearest friends, she let me be me, and loved me like a brother. I will miss her for the rest of my life, and never forget my friend Kim. I love you Kim. RIP. KC

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at 1 Corinthians 15:26. Jesus gave us a hope for our loved ones in the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. At that time we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has assured us of this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible.

“ Kim was a beautiful, confident and vivacious woman. She was so full of life! Each time I saw her, she was always positive. Heaven has received an Angel!!! She will be missed by all she came in contact with in her life, no matter how brief. Her family and extended family (including me) will always remember her. God needed her in his kingdom early. My sincerest condolences to her entire family.

“ My oldest son, Christian Kline, had the privilege of having Ms. Wooten as one of his teachers at the beginning of his 7th grade year (2010-2011) at Locust Grove Middle School. She instantly became one of his favorites. Even though Mrs. Wooten had to leave in the middle of that school year, she remained one of his favorites, and Christian constantly talked about how much he missed her. As a parent, I, too, loved Ms. Wooten. She was a wonderful mentor and teacher not only to my son, but I'm certain to every student lucky enough to be in her class. Kim truly cared about each and every student, which is becoming more rare as the days go by. Her bright smile, kind & compassionate heart, her very presence will be sorely missed by everyone who knew her in Locust Grove. May God give you comfort, fill your hearts with peace and wrap you in His love during this difficult time. Your family will be in our prayers.
