“ These are pictures when Laci was in first grade. I had the privilege of teaching her in first grade. She was an absolute joy to teach.

“ My heart goes out to the families of Laci Bug Evans. I did not have the pleasure of meeting her in person, but her grand maw Lisa shared oh so may photos on Face Book of Laci and I will never forget the smiles, courage , and upbeat that this little Angel shared with so many of us. I know that she is still smiling with no pain at all. She has had an influence on so many. I would like to say that my prayers are with Eddie Evans, Laci's father and her grand mother Gloriana Bayless and her Aunt Regina. God be with each and everyone of you during this time. Amen.

“ Evans Family: I only met Laci once on October 16th when I went on a field trip with her class. It was so uplifting to see the other kids care for her. What a beautiful smile she wore throughout the day. It was difficult to get her wheelchair around at the Archives building so I scooped her up and carried her to the top of the stairs and placed her back into her chair. I did this a few more times until the end of the day when I carried her back onto the bus. She said "thank you" in that sweet little voice. As a mother, my heart is breaking for you. I just cannot imagine your pain at this moment. However, I do know that our God is good and if you will lean on Him, He will bring you through this. I pray for comfort and the peace of knowing that your baby girl is in the arms of Jesus right now. You can see her again one day. May God Bless Your Entire Family!

“ Thoughts and prayers for Jason, Echo, Tara and the rest of the family. My heart breaks for you and the loss of your baby girl. My favorite sweet moment I remember is when Echo would have both Tara and Laci dressed so pretty and they would walk around the Apt Complex. Also how the love shined in their eyes when they were at their Grandma Gloria's house. Fly high sweet Angel. You will truly missed. Love to all.....Sandy
