“ So very sorry to hear of Aunt LaMerle's passing. Though we lost touch over the years, she and Uncle "Nax" were a huge part of our lives when my brothers, Wayne and Scott Milton were young, and our mother, Alice Wayne Milton, died suddenly. Memories of cookouts, Aunt LaMerle's amazing cooking, the sing-a-longs after dinner. What a sweet, loving, amazing Aunt she was to all of us. So much love to Kathy Mike and Steve, and family.

“ Although we attended FPC for only 1 year when I was stationed at Maxwell AFB, we have wonderful memories of Ms. Milton. She taught my son Micah's Sunday school class when he was 4 years old. We still reflect fondly on her and miss her greatly. -- Casey Campbell

“ What a wonderful woman LaMerle was! Her wonderful children and other family members honor her legacy by the Christian lives they lead. I'll miss her encouragement and kind words when we had the chance to interact at our worship services and at other times. I'm sure we can all rest assured that she is now enjoying her promised rewards of heaven with her Lord Jesus Christ. May God enfold you all with His strength and comfort during this time of adjustment.
