“Happy Birthday to my Daddy in heaven. My Daddy was the best man and hardest working man for his wife and children I have ever known my entire life. I don't understand why he was suddenly and unexpectedly taken from us but all I can keep telling myself to get through is I will see him again one day. I have so many beautiful memories of my life with him with all his protective ways and peculiar ways over his children. He had a hard job and he worked very very hard so my momma could stay home with us so that he knew his children were in safe hands and not left with anyone so he didn't have to worry about anyone mistreating us in any way. I also remember he even used to check all the seals on our food when my momma went grocery shopping to make sure the seals weren't broken before his children ate it. I remember like it was yesterday me being a little girl standing in the kitchen watching him bring in groceries and telling us not to eat anything until he checked all the seals one by one he loved us so much. I also remember him always wanting to get us a pool put in but he said he couldn't because he would not be able to function at work for worrying about his children drowning and he knew my momma couldn't swim that well. Well I guess he felt sorry for us and ended up getting an above ground pool that our little feet could reach the bottom with heads above water but shortly after that he brought home a whole bunch of slimy fish and filled it up and gave us fishing poles and said look y'all can sit out here and throw it in there and catch fish and that made us so happy well of course later on I figured out what my daddy did he tricked us Lol... He just couldn't think about his little ducklings being in a pool around water while he was at work he just loved us so much and that is only a very very few of my daddys protective ways over us...I love him and miss him with all of my heart I could never find anyone to fill his spot! I'm so sorry daddy that you didn't get your Birthday Party this year that you asked us to give you but just know that we Love You and Miss You Dearly and theirs no doubt in my mind that you are in a better place than we are... Happy 70th Birthday!🎂🍦🎈 I Love and Miss You Daddy your baby daughter, Carrie. (deke)
