“ You are etched in my memories for ever. You and Tanya were the only Bama friends that came to our wedding in Fort Worth in 1983. Y'all came in the night before and stayed with me at our apartment. We got up early and I cooked homemade biscuits and gravy for breakfast. We left in plenty of time to make it to the church. As typical of our luck we ran hot on the interstate and got to the church with 15 minuets to spare. Lynn was freaking out! In our wedding picture of our hands, you can see the biscuits doe in my fingernails! We have laughed about that for 33+ years. The 3 day party in Cowtown that followed is still talked about. You and Tanya will never know how much it ment to have y'all there.
I hate we didn't get to go fishing like we talked about the other day but be sure my friend, we will, before long be fishing in that Crystal Sea.
Peace be with you all.
