“ My sweet friend, your season is out of time. I miss you. Everyday was definitely an adventure from cleaning out units, shopping at the thrift store, putting your new house together, cleaning and straightening up my apartment, having yard sales, painting shelving units, just to name a few. We sat for hours on my porch many nights and laughed ourselves silly and sometimes cried like babies just to get it all out. I would buy you costume jewelry from the thrift store and then you would get a kick out of me presenting it to you Vanna White style. I know once I introduced you to my Shark floor mop, I almost had to pry it out of your hands - too funny - you and that mop! You would sit in my rocking chair rocking while I caught up on my work. I am so grateful to have had so much time with you, even if it was only for a few years, we crammed a lot of happy memories in those years together. Chris, thank you for sharing Sheree and being so patient letting us have "girlie" time. I will always have fond memories in my heart of all of us spending time together and the many adventures and mis-adventures along the way. Sheree Girlie, I will see you again when my season runs out of time, I love you.
