May God give you & Brian the strength you need to carry on. We are at a loss for words to comfort you, but know we have you in our thoughts, prayers, and hearts every single day. We cannot even begin to imagine what you are going through right now, but I wanted to share this poem with you:

*One night I dreamed I was walking along the beach with the Lord.
Many scenes from my life flashed across the sky.
In each scene I noticed footprints in the sand.
Sometimes there were two sets of footprints,
other times there were one set of footprints.*

*This bothered me because I noticed that during the low periods of my life,
when I was suffering from
anguish, sorrow or defeat,
I could see only one set of footprints.*

*So I said to the Lord,
"You promised me Lord,
that if I followed you,
you would walk with me always.
But I have noticed that during the most trying periods of my life
there have only been one set of footprints in the sand.
Why, when I needed you most,
you have not been there for me?"*

*The Lord replied,
"The times when you have
seen only one set of footprints,
is when I carried you."*

Much love to all of you.

“ Dear Family, please accept my deepest sympathy for your loss. The loss of a loved one is the most painful experiences in life. There is a void that cannot be filled. Rest assured the Bible promises we will hold them again and enjoy their smiling faces forever. It is God's purpose that no one dies ever again and everyone live on earth in Paradise. God never wanted anyone to die but to live happy healthy lives forever on earth. We have to exercise faith in his Son, Jesus Christ, to gain these blessings. God gives us his Word so we can gain comfort now and have hope for the future.
