“ I was thinking of Mrs. Pope tonight and wondered what happened to her and found her obituary. She was my teacher at Berean Christian Academy in the late 80s when I was in 7th and 8th grade. After the school closed, she came to my honor society indication at Salem High School as my guest for having supported me in my middle school years. Teachers are special people that are not forgotten. I'm so thankful for the Hope we have in Jesus that Mrs. Pope is living eternally with Him.

“ Most people knew my sister as Linda, all my life I called her "PENNY" not for sure were that came from, she would get upset with me when we were around her friends and I would call her Penny. She didn't mind it as long as it was only the two of us. Even though we were miles apart, we kept in Constance contact with one another. Loved by her church family, always had something good to say about the ladies group and how much they meant to her and the ministries they were involved in.

Love you sis and will see you again!!!

Buddy I was so sorry for the loss of Penny. She was my patient and I always remember her as Penny when I was a little girl at your parents house. She was a wonderful person inside and out. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. Sheila Bell Simersky

“ My Dear Linda, Save me a place and greet me at The Door. I know you are there.

I had a very fine time with you while you were with us. It started in high school when Helen and I would say we should walk to Wirt's house. We stayed friends all these years and the recent reconnection was perfect.

I love you and send my sympathy to Buddy and the rest of your family. See you again one day.

“ I knew Linda as a 16-year-old when she was a little red-headed firecracker. She was a terrific athlete. Although there were no sanctioned sports for girls when we were in high school, she was an excellent basketball player and could sink free throws all day long. She could beat everybody when playing Horse, even my dad. She was a good flag football player, too, playing Powder Puff football at ACHS as well as playing in any game going on in somebody's yard. She had a ready smile and was a lot of fun. We will miss you, "Wirt." Godspeed, and God bless you.
