

Lisa Lynn Robins

July 11, 1963 - January 8, 2024

Lisa Lynn Massengale Robins, 60, of Selma, Alabama entered into God's kingdom on January 8, 2024. Funeral services will be on Saturday, January 13, 2024 at Hunting Ridge Church at 2:00 pm. Burial will follow at Prattville Memorial Gardens with Prattville Memorial directing at the gravesite. The family will receive friends at Hunting Ridge Church one-hour prior to the service. She is preceded in death by her daughter, Emily Brooke Pollard and mother, Rita Latham. She is survived by her husband, Brooks; daughter, Katie (Gary) Edwards; father, John (Pat) Massengale; brother, Stan Massengale; and grandchildren, Kamryn Alivia Bice, Dawson Brooks Harris, Kara Grace Harris, Brody Kurt Harris, and Emerald Katherine Harris.

Lynn was born July 11, 1963 in Selma, Alabama before moving to Prattville, Alabama when she was a child. She graduated from Prattville High School and worked for the Autauga County Health Department. She raised her family, daughters, Katie and Emily, in Prattville. In 2011 she married childhood friend Brooks Robins which took her to Seattle, Washington, where she began a new adventure. Upon returning to Alabama in 2018 she and Brooks moved to Prattville to be closer to family. They then moved to Selma, where their story had once begun.

Whatever role Lynn took on - daughter, wife, mother, granny, sister, aunt – she did it wholeheartedly, dutifully, and with Christ at the center. Lynn radiated the light of Christ every day of her life and shone for everyone she met. With her larger-than-life personality and the uncanny ability to make a friend wherever she went, that light touched immeasurable souls.

Lynn, or Granny to her five grandchildren, loved being a grandmother and adored her grandchildren. They each brought her joy and she loved being involved in their lives.

A born bargain hunter, Lynn loved hunting for treasure at an excellent price. She filled her home with pieces that brought her joy, that had a unique story behind them, and were always a bargain. Whoever accompanied her shopping knew they were in for the long haul!

Lynn thrived upon connecting with others, taking delight in discovering their story. She found joy and wonder in everything, especially in the places and people she loved. She created a home wherever she went and loved to host friends and family, never missing an opportunity to cook for and entertain her guests. She cared for others deeply and knew exactly how to comfort and celebrate no matter what the occasion. Her family was everything and, to her, everyone was family.

Lynn may be gone from this earth, but her radiance that touched all who met her will continue to shine always.

Lynn was a very special person. We worked together at the health department. Lynn was a special lady. Our children went to school together. She loved the Lord. There were times we would have prayer and talk about our walk with Jesus. I will miss her tremendously. Go rest high on that mountain my precious friend and sister in Christ. Love you and love your family. Katie you will be in my prayers. Love you.

“ Lynn was such a bright light. She entered my life while I was in the hospital as a teenager and she was a candy striper. I was in the hospital for several days and I remember getting excited about her being there after school because she was so kind and bubbly. I think she could see that I wasn't having visitors and she made it a point to make sure she brighten my day. A short time after that I would live with her and her family for a season of time. We would have so much fun with simple things like doing hair and makeup, laying in the sun, shopping, cooking, church or just giving Stan her brother a hard time but he was always such a good sport. Lynn truly was a light to me in a tough season. I feel blessed to have known her and witnessed her beautiful soul. I know she was rejoicing to see her Emily.

“ Lynn came into mine and Michelle's lives when she learned of our daughter Emily and her failing health. She was right beside Emily as she took her last breaths. What a profound effect she would have on our lives, then and now. The love and caring just flowed out of her. She is with her Emily now, and ours, and loving on them both. Lynn, thank Jesus for letting you into our lives here on earth, and we look forward to being with you again, someday...

“ When Lynn came into my life I had no idea what a profound difference she would make in my life. She was recommended to me as a sitter and home daycare for my toddler son. As a single mom having someone I could trust with my baby was essential. Lynn was a Godsend! Not only did she care for my son she introduced me to some of my dearest friends who also had children in Lynn’s care. She and one of the other mothers decided they needed to find me a good man. They gave my phone number to Tracey’s cousin and then told me what they were up to. I reluctantly agreed to a blind date after several phone calls. Little did I know that 2 weeks later we would be engaged and married 5 months later we were married. 29 years later we are still married and I still cherish my friendship with Lynn and the friends we shared. Although I haven’t seen her much in since she married Brooks and have not had the pleasure of meeting him, I could see the joy he brought her just from speaking with her and following her social media. My heart goes out to Brooks, Katie and her children and Stan and her Dad. I will cherish my memories of all the fun times we shared and look forward to seeing her again in Heaven!

“ My connection with Lynn was through the sharing of the unimaginable path of child loss. She was such a light and encourager to me in the worst days of my life. I am forever grateful that God put Lynn in my path at that time in my life. I am thankful for her beautiful smile, and the light of God that she always shared. I was shocked to hear of her passing, and my prayers are with the whole family and all of her dear friends. In our grief group she would always give comfort by saying "each day here is one day closer", I pray those words bring comfort to every life she touched, I know there are so many.

“Katie and family I am so sad to hear about your mom! My heart hurts for you because I know losing a mom at such a young age is shocking!! Praying for you and your family! I can see your mom smiling ear to ear in the arms of Jesus! She was a Strong Godly Woman and she will be missed by all that knew her. The world will be a little dimmer without her beautiful smile!!

“I'm so sad to hear that Lynn passed away, I'm her 2nd cousin and I know I didn't get up to see her that much, but I have some memories of the times I did go up to my aunts house in Alabama and myself and brother and sister would wind up going to Lynn's house and having a big slumber party with my cousins Katie and Emily, and the next morning we would all go back to my aunts for a big breakfast, and I can't leave this part out then we would all go thrift shopping. I'm going to miss you Lynn, but I know now that you're with Emily and aunt Rita and all your other family members. Love you Lynn 🥹❤️👤💔

Lynn was such a bright, shining light to everyone. She never met a stranger and made friends so easily. She was an outstanding student of mine as well as a wonderful babysitter in later years. Through all of life's struggles she endured, Lynn's love for the Lord and everyone else blossomed. Her faith was genuine as she ministered to so many. She is no doubt rejoicing with Emily right now. Prayers for all the family she left behind.
