“ Dear Family,

The grief that is felt when we lose a loved one may seem unbearable. At such times, we can go to God's word for comfort. God too feels hurt when an individual dies. That is why the encouragement found at Revelation 21:4 assure us that "He will remove sorrow and death will be no more." According to this scripture, there will come a time when those we have lost to death will be brought back by means of a resurrection by the Almighty God. May the family find the comfort that God makes available to all persons.

“ Mr. and Mrs. Dageforde,

I can't tell you how sorry I am to hear the news about Logan. He was a great friend to me. Through the years we grew apart but he was always considered to me a great guy and friend. He meant so much to me growing up. He got me into the swim team and I'll never forget those days back at the ballpark playing with him. I know this doesn't take the pain away but I want to let you and your family know that I am thinking about you and praying for you. Logan is in a better place and one day we will all be reunited again.

Love,

I know that he is in a better place and will miss everyone dearly. He is smiling down on you and saying that he is fine where he is. and that he will see all of us soon. I wish I couldve been there. I wish I knew that last week was the last time I wouldve talked to him..bc i wouldve said so much more. I am deeply sorry for your loss. and my prayers and love are with yall.

“ Mr. Dave, Mrs. Carla, Katie & Family - I can not even fathom the pain and the void created by such a freak tragedy. Logan was such a huge part of our family during our time in Prattville that I do not know if we even have a home video without him in it. So many fun times; flying fish, football in the backyard, swimming, and on and on. He was such an amazing young man and his huge heart touched so many lives. I pray healing and rest to each of you and just know that my mom, dad, and Will are constantly thinking of and praying for you.

“ Katie, Carla, and Dave, we are grieving alongside you. We, along with many people, love your family and want to help bear your burden (Gal. 6:2). Yesterday's service very effectively portrayed Logan. He was delightfully "boy," and unpretentious, for which we all loved him. We fondly remember ball games and swim meets when we interacted together. Prayers will continue. Love, Dawn and Harold and family
