“ It is with great sadness that today I learned of the passing of (Luther) Floyd Smith. I personally knew Floyd and his family from September 1980 until March of 1983 and I loved them with all of my heart. Unfortunately during the time that I knew the Smith family I was not a believer in Jesus Christ. But because of their love for me and example to me (taking me to church and living out the love of Christ in their daily lives) I did become a "Believer" and accepted Christ as my Savior and Lord in April 1983. I will always be eternally thankful to them and ESPECIALLY TO FLOYD as a mentor. I loved Floyd as I did my own father (who died when I was 12 years old). He was the kindest, most loving man that I had ever known. The 21 months that he and his family accepted me into their lives and loved me as one of their own will always be precious to me.

I still laugh to myself when I recall Floyd and his wife Nancy telling me that, even though their youngest son Lance had been born with a different middle name, they had to legally change his middle name to "Floyd" because Lance would tell everyone that his full name was Lance "Floyd" Smith, because Mr. Smith and Barry, their oldest son, had the middle name "Floyd". Lance wanted to be like his daddy and he could not have chosen a better man to emulate. What a loving thing for Nancy and Floyd to do for Lance.

God bless you Mr. Smith, and thank you from the bottom of my heart for showing me what it means to be a man of God. The seed that God used you to plant in my heart was not in vain. It took root and sprouted into a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. And because of the love that you showed me now I, my wife, our 3 children, and their spouses all have accepted Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord. My family and I thank you from the bottom of our hearts! I will never forget you and I know that one day I will see you and Nancy again in heaven.

“ Mr. Floyd was always a shining light for the Lord, I never seen him that his love didn't show. The last time I seen him was at Jim's BBQ & we talked, but before we parted he let me know that we were in his Prayers. His Christianity showed no matter where you seen him & I always thought if everyone lived as he did, wouldn't the world be beautiful. My heart breaks for his family, but I know he is celebrating with his wife & others that were waiting on him. May we all live more like Mr. Floyd.

“ Nancy was my first cousin. I saw Floyd and Nancy at family events. He was a wonderful person and a good husband to Nancy until her death. I never knew him well, but I will never forget him. I will miss receiving his Christmas card every Christmas season. It is good to know that he and Nancy are together again. Carol Bonnett Edmondson

“ A mans' legacy is never measured by "what" he leaves, but "who" he leaves. This man has left a legacy in his sons and daughter, as well as grandchildren that cannot be equaled. It's very easy to see him in their lives and how they conduct themselves. A little bit of him will live on, and be passed on, not only to family, but to everyone they meet.

“ I was Nancy Bonnett Smith's first cousin. I had the pleasure of reconnecting with Nancy (and Floyd) on three occasions before Nancy passed away on Dec. 25, 2011. It was good to get re-acquainted with Nancy. Floyd was a friendly and very nice man. I also had three other occasions later after his wife died to meet Floyd again; he was always such a friendly and accommodating person. I enjoyed talking to him. Condolences to his children and grandchildren. He will be missed by all who knew him.
