“ Margaret and I were teachers at Robinson Springs Elementary School. She was a supportive and caring co worker (and a lot of fun). Even though I have not seen or talked to Margaret in a number of years, she was that kind of person that always remained in my thoughts and prayers.

My prayers for the family. I know she will be missed. I am sure she left lots of memories for you to hold close to your hearts!

“ Margaret was one of the sweetest people I have ever met. She lived across the street from us on High Pointe. I was suffering through chemo and surgeries and she was very attentive to our needs. Prayers go out for her sweet family. Jack and Susan Wall
