“ On March 18, 1987 I was on the phone with Paige when I was accidentally shot. I didn't hang the phone up and poor Paige heard the entire aftermath. I worried about her for years. She found me on FB and we renewed our friendship. Because of the accident we had a really special bond. It's so hard to get past her sudden, unexpected passing. She was caring, loved her family and one of the funniest people I ever met. I love her like a sister. Missing her everyday. My deepest condolences and prayers to here family.

“ I loved my niece so very much. I always called her Paigey. My favorite memories of this sweet girl were the little games we played every time she visited. She loved looking through all of my makeup and jewelry. She would set aside a pile of things and bring them to me. "Aunt Mary " she would say, "I really like these. Can I have them?" I would give them to her. I'd get a big "thank you" and a kiss. Then she would say " well can I have a little ditty bag to put them in?" I never go into my bathroom to put on my makeup without hearing her talk to me. Gosh. I'm gonna miss that baby so much.
