“ I am very sorry to read about your loss. Please be assured that God will help us through difficult periods like these. The Bible tells us that God is "healing the broken-hearted ones and is binding up their painful spot." (Psalms 147:3). May this scripture bring you much comfort.

“ Mike and Family,
You have all been in our prayers since we heard the news about your sweet mama. She went "home for Christmas" to be with your dad and her Saviour. I know the pain is very real and difficult, but the strength and faith she instilled in you will be more than sufficient. Mike, you are one of the best people I know, and I've been proud to call you my friend for many years. May God bless you and keep you during this difficult time.
Much love,

“ Pat,

We were terribly saddened to learn of the loss of your mother. I know how much you loved and treasured her. I wish that we could attend the service; just know that we are thinking and praying for you.
