“ I am so very sorry that I did not know that Mary had passed away. I accidentally stumbled across her obituary when I was researching an address online. I am very sorry for your loss. I knew her at A&P and as a friend for 45 years.

“ We are so sorry for the loss of Aunt Mary. She was kind and a good listener. When you talked to her, she made you feel valued and important. This was especially true at my college graduation two years ago (picture attached). She made it known to me how proud she was. I will never forget her gentle spirit. At Christmas get-togethers, she would often have wise and thoughtful conversations with me. She was a beautiful person, and I am thankful to have had her in my life.

Much love,

“ Well Denie,

I am so glad that I worked next door to you at your beauty shop in Eastbrook. You worked there happily for fourteen years. It was such a treat to have my sis next door. The three years that I have had working next door to you have been enjoyable with coffee, conversation, and the time we had together. In 2016 you closed your shop, and you were greatly missed by me and all of your customers. Denie always said that "God has another plan for me," and yes indeed he did! You are now walking on the streets of gold with no suffering, while holding hands with Floyd. Miss you sis! Love you forever!

“ Well Deanie, I never thought the time would come when I would be missing you as much as I do. You were more like a sister to me than an Aunt. You got me my first job when I was 15 yrs old, at Winn Dixie! I always had great times with you when I was helping you with a little remodeling in your home. Enjoyed the conversation and the laughter. Some of my most memorable times was when I would drop by your shop for a haircut and share gossip sessions with you. You were a blessing to me and you will be greatly missed.

“ Oh my goodness, where do I start? We grew up together, shared the first part of our lives and our families. So many memories. You have left three wonderful children and you will live on through them as they continue along life's path. I will miss you so very much. It is hard to know that you won't be there to "fuss" with and laugh with. You and Floyd are reunited and walking those streets of gold. I love you.
