“ Mary Rose could do wonders w/a needle and thread. She created beautiful dresses for all her grand babies and great grands. Mary Rose always had her hair fixed so nice and neat. She would apologize about her hair even when it was fixed. I saw her in the hospital the day before she died. The hair was not fixed and she never mentioned her hair. And I never thought she might not make it. She was always telling me something about her family. She loved and served her family to the end. An amazing working woman!!!
