“ Sharon and Family, so sorry to hear about Mary and just know you all are in our prayers from the Duffell Family. I really enjoyed knowing her and the Ingram Family from the "country" in the old days; all were lots of fun to be around. May memories be comforting. God Bless, Your Cousin, Anita Shores Clark.

“ Aunt Mary was everyone's favorite aunt. Life of the party, outlived all her siblings. Had a laugh that was unique to her. She was loud, fun, spoke whatever came to mind. And she got me sent to jail with her when I was 7 years old after she rear-ended a pink Mary Kay Cadillac. She lives life to the fullest and we're sure going to miss you.
