“ My Aunt Katherine to me was a god loving woman and I learned through her there is a true love ...she loved her husband my Uncle Elmer ...my last conversation with her a family event was ...she said I remind her of my mama and with this in mind I smile today and forever that she is with my mama

“ I remember meeting Ms Katherine the day before my son and her granddaughter's wedding. Sitting getting to know her in her front yard with a glass of Iced tea . She welcomed me into her family but most of all she made me feel as though I had been family all along . Her home had many bedrooms and was usually full of family and friends. Her home was filled with love and she was loved by many family and friends . I feel honored and blessed to have known her . I know many hearts are broken at this time , but I believe Katherine and her husband have finally reunited . Together they are watching over all of those they love . I believe our afterlife is like our earth life only better . Katherine was a guardian angel in life and now her and Judge are your guardian angels , lovingly watching over all they love .You will always have a place in my heart .
