“ I would like to give my sincere condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Gradick. Although I did not know him personally, I am sure that he was loved and will be missed dearly. Please know that God has promised that soon, no one will have to go through the emotional turmoil of losing a loved one in death. No one will ever again be sick, be in pain, or die (Revelation 21:4). We will also be able to see our loved ones who have died again (Acts 24:15). I hope that this provides something comforting to reflect on in this very difficult time.

“ The sudden loss of such a sweet sweet man is hard to deal with. To friends and neighbors, the loss is great, but to someone he took in almost 13 years ago, I'm speechless, words can't express the loss. Watching Family Fued with you or listening to those many stories of your younger years are already missed. You're resting now, but will never ever be forgotten, Thank you for everything, lot's of love...Rudy

“ Perhaps they are not the stars, but rather openings in heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know they are happy.
