“ Pat McCollough was a friend to me and will live in my memory as long as I long as I live. She was full of life and easy to respect and love. She was completely loyal and faithful to Her husband George. The two of them joined their lives together and became one just as God intended.

I'll not forget the day I rang their carport doorbell hoping to meet them. Pat handed me off to George then listened in the background while George told me the first installment of their life stories. That was the first day of our 25 year friendship. Having Pat McCullough as a friend has has blessed my life and I will hold her memory close to my heart. I believe that Pat is today resting in the loving arms of Jesus. May God grant peace to all who loved her and miss her.

“ Larry: Raymond and I are so sad to read of your mother's death. We love you and pray God will comfort you during this dark time of your life. Please know we love and care about you. Losing a mother is one of the worst things to happen to us. As long as Mama lived, you knew someone loved you and always "had your back". Our deepest sympathy.
