I can never thank you enough for that. I will cherish all the memories I have of you. I want to say I'm sorry for not being there enough for you. “ Chase was a love and part of the reason my first year at UA was filled with laughs and amazing memories. He was majorly missed when he left Tuscaloosa but his life took a different path and he bravely served this country in the middle east and started a family. I saw Chase a couple of times after he originally left T-town and spoke with him a few times over the years, but immensely and irreversibly regret not staying in touch with him. I'll always have my memories to look back on, but I hate I didn't take the time to remind him what a great friend I considered him. I can't imagine what his family is going through and so appreciate that his son's mother Tyler took the time out of such an emotional time to let his college friends know of the loss. Every Bama game I'll stop and think of Chase and how much more time I wish I could have spent with him. I will be donating to wounded warrior project in his honor shortly. Roll tide my friend.
