“ Miller was a joy to watch in class. He loved the classroom and had a warm and welcoming smile for all who entered. Miller was kind and always willing to share his knowledge and wisdom. He will be very much missed at the Food Preservation classes. Rest in Peace our good friend and teacher.

“ He will be greatly missed. I attended several of his canning and preserving classes at the OSU in the past few years. He taught me so much. He had a no-nonsense, practical style of teaching, and I shall miss learning from him.
