“ I give my deep condolences to the Conway family. Losing a loved one in death is a difficult thing to experience. However, the Bible gives us comfort in times of distress. Psalm 72:12 says “he will deliver the poor one crying for help.” Isn't that a comforting thought? May this scripture and the support of family and friends be with you during this time.

“ I will never say “Goodbye” to you Daddy
Because I know this is not the end for us to see each other.
You are only going to a place where there is no pain nor suffering.
I am happy for you, for you will be with God.
And for now we need to go in separate ways.
I remember growing up how you would hug me and dry my tears –
You gave me strength.
You were always there to listen, to love and to protect me,
You are my hero.
In my triumphs you were always proud,
I’m so very proud to call you my Dad.
Here deep inside my heart you will always be.
I would give up everything I have just to hug you one more time.
I remember the last time I held your hand and how you looked me in the eyes,
If only I could turn back time, I would never let you go.
I felt my world stop and heart break when they told me you were gone....
How I wish I was only dreaming
Just like the rain; the tears fell down my eyes, I couldn’t speak for the longest time...

Thank you Daddy, for always understanding, listening, caring and loving me your whole life.
The greatest gift God gave me was YOU, my Daddy.
It is difficult to let you go but I know I must...
I must return the gift God gave me...
Until we met again in Heaven.

I love you, Daddy!
