“ I am very sorry to read about your loss. Losing a loved one in death is a very difficult thing to deal with. However, some comfort can be drawn from God's promises in the Bible. He says that he will soon "swallow up death forever" (Isaiah 25:8). May this comfort you and your family during this grieving period.

“ My deep condolences goes out to the family of Mrs. Weaver. Losing a loved one in death is a very difficult thing to dela with. However, I hope you can comfort in God's promise to "swallow up death forever" in the near future (Isaiah 25:8). May the support of family and friends assist you during this grieving period.

“ My sympathy to the family. Many think that old age, sickness and death are a natural part of life, but it is not; otherwise we would look forward to it. Thankfully it is not God's will that families suffer the pain of seeing a loved one get sick and die and He promises to swallow up death forever (Isaiah 25:8). He also promises to bring back to life by means of his son Jesus Christ all those dead in the memorial tombs (John 5:28,29). What a wonderful day that will be.
