“ Dear O'Connor family,
I was so sad whenever I heard that Nancy died. As a lot of people know she died on Easter. It was especially sad because I am her oldest granddaughter she was the bestest friend I could of ever had she knew everything about me. I loved her so much and she will be with me and in my thoughts forever and I will continue to pray for her! 😊

“ Dear Family, I am so sorry about the death of your dear loved one. May you find comfort from the Bible's promise of a resurrection in John 5: 28 and 29. Also, may you find comfort in the fact that God promises to make our earth a peaceful place to live. Revelation 21:3 and 4 says that death, pain, and sorrow will be done away with. How our loved ones, as well as us look forward to that day soon to come.

“ The things I will remember most about Nancy are her positive attitude and her genuineness. In the rare occasions that I got to see her, I always enjoyed talking with her. I am grateful for her kindness to me, to my sister (her daughter-in-law), and to my nephews. The Russell family is in my prayers.

“ Thinking of Nancy tonight and what an inspiration she was both as a teacher and friend. She left behind many memories that will allow her to continue to live on in the hearts of the people she touched. While she will be missed here on earth, but one day we will see her smiling face again. May God provide comfort and peace to the family. Much love, Bambi and Steve Smith
