“ Natalie's love for friends and family always shined brightly. Whether she was playing the guitar at church, telling crazy jokes, sharing stories with friends or just showing her goofy side....she shine with so much love and compassion for others. She is a light that will never fade no matter how many seasons pass. Though she is present with the Lord, her presence has tied red strings of love that we feel each and every day. Rest on Natalie. Until we meet again.
