“ I remember the first time I met Tasha, I also at the time, met Carol & Ronnie. We immediately all became more like family than just friend's, I watched her grow into a beautiful young woman, my heart is aching for you and Ronnie. Tasha and I got really really close and when she moved back to Prattville just lost connection. Tasha I love you my friend /family, YOU WILL NEVER BE FORGOTTEN, I HAVE SOME GREAT MEMORIES WITH YOU. GO FLY HIGH, GOD GAINED ONE SPECIAL ANGEL. R.I.P. TASHA, Carol & Ronnie, if we can do anything let us know, Love y'all

“ Carol and Ronnie, my heart breaks for your family. I am praying for strength and peace in knowing that the love you shared here with her will be a comfort for you. Her love for you and the girls will only be magnified by our heavenly father. Hold on to each other and your memories and know that those of us who were touched by Tasha are the better for it. You are in our hearts and prayers and may God provide comfort and rest for you who are weary too.

“ Tasha was always the sweetest. Every time she came into WalGreens she was always happy, smiling and never had an attitude. She was grateful and very pleasant. Anytime she had to wait she just smiled and said take your time bc she always knew WalGreens stayed busy. Tasha never came into my job without a smile. She was just always as happy as ever. Man, I can't believe she's gone! Lord please rest your soul. I know now that your not in anymore pain and your just a smiling away. In the words of Eminem "Don't mourn rejoice at the smile of my voice" so anytime I hear a name of Tasha she comes to my mind and I just smile bc at the end of the day she is smiling down on us and watching over us. Ms Carol I love you and I know its hard but hang on and be strong!
