“ I've prayed several times in the past two days for peace and comfort for this family. May the Holy Spirit surround each of you with a peaceful heart. Your Mom raised a precious family; she instilled her sense of value in serving others in each of your lives. May God bless and keep each of you. "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, and I have remained faithful." 2 Timothy 4:7 Prayerfully yours, Gladys McBride, Volunteer at Baptist East Well Baby Nursery.

“ So sorry to hear that your mom is no longer with us here on earth but take comfort knowing that she is happy and whole in heaven. I know there is a big hole in your heart, just keep it filled with all the wonderful memories and traditions she gave you. I know she had the very best care from her loving family. With love, Bob and Sally Deivert and family

“ I just read about the recent death of your loved one. The Bible calls death an enemy and that is certainly how it strikes us, as an enemy. Take comfort in knowing that the loving God who created us did not want us to suffer in tears of pain. “He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people He will take away from all the earth, for God himself has spoken [it].” Isaiah 25:8. My thoughts and prayers are with you in your time of grief. May your memories as well as these few words, bring you a measure of comfort.
