“ Our own words cannot begin to express adequately the deep and heartfelt sympathy that we feel for you, Dr. Phil, Mrs. Cheryl, and Jon. We realize that grief is a journey that cannot be skipped, and we trust and pray that God will be your steadfast anchor showering each of you daily with His love, strength, comfort, and peace that only He can give. We did not know Nina, but we know that she will be greatly missed. May you embrace the wonderful memories that you have of her. God bless and keep each of you in His tender, loving care.

“ Tributo a Nina Sue Fuller

Nina Sue Fuller per 10 anni missionaria in Italia con il marito Roy e i figli Phillip e Paul.

Milvia ed io incontrammo per la prima volta la famiglia Fuller quando eravamo studenti all'EuNC. Sentimmo subito un legame spirituale e di amicizia.

Nina Sue è stata un esempio e un aiuto pratico ,per Milvia all'inizio del nostro ministero pastorale , e per tutte le mogli dei pastori, mostrando praticamente come si può servire il Signore ed essere nello stesso tempo, moglie di pastore, madre e impegnati nell'opera missionaria.

Sempre sorridente, con la sua semplicità, gentilezza e affabilità, Nina si conquistò l'amore e la stima ,dentro e fuori della, anche delle giovani generazione. Nostra figlia Vania, amava tanto i dolci di Nina, e sognava di poter suonare il piano come lei.

La ricordiamo come donna "integra e retta", che adorava il Signore e capace di testimoniare che " la vita che ora vivo la vivo per fede in Cristo Gesù, che mi ha amata e ha dato la sua vita per me"

In tutti questi anni di ministero, ho visto tante donne e uomini esemplari nella loro vita di integrità e rettitudine, Nina Sue è una di questi. "Beati i morti che muoiono nel Signore"

Arrivederci Nina, ci mancheranno i tuoi saluti su facebook.

I tuoi amici Salvatore e Milvia Scognamiglio

“ Nei 10 anni che la famiglia Fuller ha trascorso in Italia come missionari, sovrintendenti e pastori, hanno lasciato un segno indelebile di testimonianza e affetto. Eravamo tutti molto affezionati a Nina e parte di lei è qui nel mio ufficio da dove scrivo; c'è il pianoforte che ci ha lasciati e sul quale mia moglie Vania ha perfezionato il suo talento per servire il Signore. E' solo uno dei ricordi della generosità e amore che Nina aveva per L'Italia. Ringraziamo il Signore per averci dato questo esempio di vita e servizio Cristiano. La piangiamo con la speranza della gloriosa risurrezione.

Daniel R. Fink - SD - Distretto Italiano

The 10 years that the Fullers spend in Italy as Missionaries, DS and pastoring, left a profound footprint of testimony and love. We loved Nina and a part of her is still here in my office from where I'm writing; her piano, the one she left so that my wife Vania could practice her talent to serve the Lord. This is only one of the tangible memories of Nina and Roy's generosity and love for our country. We are so grateful to God for giving to us such an example of christian service and lifestyle. We mourn for her lost with the certain hope of the glorious resurrection.

Never an unkind word. Encourager, helper, patient, selfless, generous, exudes Christ and humble. We are blessed to have known her. May the Lord she loved with all her heart now be your very comfort and shield in these difficult days.*

“ Roy and Nina were some of our greatest cheerleaders throughout our many years of overseas missionary service and even when we returned to the States in ministry. We knew we were loved and prayed for down through the years. A true saint of the Lord is now home. We will miss her so much until that glorious day!

“ My children were so fortunate to have this precious lady in their lives. Aunt Nina loved her family and she loved the Lord and served all of her life. She was full of joy and could light up the room with her presence. Heaven has gained a precious angel that we are going to miss so much. We are confident that this is not forever. It is just goodbye until we see you again. We love you, Aunt Nina. Thank you for making a difference in my life and the lives of my family.

“ Ms Nina was such a wonderful woman. I never saw anything but a smile on her face and joy in her words. We lost a wonderful woman, and Heaven gained a beautiful Angel. She will be missed greatly, so glad I got to hear her play the piano this past Sunday. My daughter always remembered when they came to Ruby Tuesday's they would always hug her and talk with her. She loved her too. The countless prayers I know she said for Layla and I. What a gentle soul, I will truly miss this woman.
