“ Frank and I met OH at Autaugaville Methodist Church. He was always very nice and helpful to us. We were blessed to have known him.

“ I grew up and attended school in the same community as OH. He was always a very shy reserved person. We shared childhood memories briefly at a reunion in July. Prayers for his family, I know he will be missed.

“ OH has been a vital and faithful servant in our church. He loved music and faithfully gave of his talents for decades in the church and being our “sound man”. He is missed already. So glad he has met his Savior face to face.
