“ Dear Marty and boys,

I am so sorry to hear of your loss. She was taken away too soon from this world. She was a wonderful person and mother. Although I am far away, please know you will remain in my thoughts and prayers. May her final cruise be in a grand suite! God bless you and your family!

Thank you both. That is so considerate of you. Pam always laughed about Mom and Dad's 25th celebration when Martin took Dee around and was introducing her to everyone.

“ My dear high school friend!!! I will miss you. All the wonderful memories I have of you. I have been thinking of you all day! I remember our last phone conversation you were all excited to go on your cruise and I was all excited telling you about my grand babies! Every time I hear a Queen song I think of you, every time I see Tabu perfume I think of you. I will never forget when your cat attacked me in your bedroom, cruising Dodge street, you making me watch General Hospital when Luke and Laura got married, your family taking me to FL with you, and your dad singing Old McDonald to Benny! So many great memories with a great friend! You will live forever in my heart Pam!

Thank so much for sharing your memories Debbie!! When Pam and I got married, you were the one person I wanted to build a relationship with because you two were such best friends. I am so glad you two had that last phone and was able to catch up. Please stay in touch.
