“ I just read about the recent death of your loved one. The Bible calls death an enemy and that is certainly how it strikes us, as an enemy. Take comfort in knowing that the loving God who created us did not want us to suffer in tears of pain. “He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people He will take away from all the earth, for God himself has spoken [it].” Isaiah 25:8. My thoughts and prayers are with you in your time of grief. May your memories, as well as these few words, bring you a measure of comfort.

“ I have known Patsy since I started to work at Jackson in 1985. She always had a smile and a kind word. I remember once when she was starting an IV on my prior to a surgery, I never even felt a thing. She was skilled, kind and a loving soul and she is at peace now. My prayers are with her family and those who are missing her.

“ Patsy, such a sweet lady. Never did I see her not smiling and caring for her patients (including me and my family). I have worked at Jackson for 26 years and have known Patsy since early on. I will miss her so much as will everyone who worked with her. I'm sorry for the patient's who come for surgery in the future who won't have to opportunity to meet her.

My prayers to her family. Look to Jesus now because he is the only one who can give you the comfort you need to get through this. Patsy is at home now and in no more pain and sickness. Kim “ Please know how much your mother was loved and has been and will be truly missed. I only worked w/ her a short time before her illness, but had seen her many times thru the yrs while I was employed by a surgeon that operated at Jackson. She was always so loving and caring. She always made you feel how much she cared about you and her patients. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during this time.
