“ Though I did not personally know Mr. Turner, I want to express my deepest sympathy to his family. No doubt the loss of such a dear loved one will be felt by many. Long ago the faithful man job asked if an able-bodied man died could he live again. The comforting answer is yes. Our God the Creator yearns to bring back to life those who have died. (Job 14:13-15) May this and other promises recorded in God's Word the Bible continue to comfort your family in this critical time.

“ Mr. & Mrs Turner,

*My Thoughts & Prayers go out to you both...
My heart breaks for you both as well because I know what it is like to loss a child...*

It's something NO ONE can ever understand unless they have been through this themselves.

At the passing of my daughter, I had to looked at some things to try & help me get my of tragedy...

I Honestly felt BLESSED to have been able to have spent 21 yrs. of her life with her instead of feeling like I was robbed of it & me knowing that she is in a MOST BEAUTIFUL & GLORIOUS PLACE that we call "HEAVEN" with GOD, where She is at Peace & there will be No More Pain or Suffering from anything, anymore...

She will ALWAYS be Beautiful & Joyful forever more...I find Comfort in knowing all of that.

Kevin was an Amazing Man with a big Heart full of Love for everyone. I meet Kevin many years ago when I became a cheerleader for the Raiders & became friends with Wes & kim Bonner.

I feel honored to have known him. Please know that you both will always be in my Thoughts & Prayers through all of this & May you both find Comfort through the GOD & Him to help you both along this Journey that you to endure...

*My Love to you both Always,
Lisa Crosswy Gray*

“ Mr. And Mrs. Raymond Turner, Kevin's wife, children and family members! Also to the people who were proud to know him as a person and be privileged to call him a friend such as myself! To the thousands of fans that loved him and lived their dreams through him! I would like to take this time to say how sorry I am for all of our loss! Especially for Mr. and Mrs. Turner! I can only imagine what you have been through over the past 6 years watching Kevin decline everyday with no way to help but to be there for him to let him know he was loved and still useful! Mr. Raymon you know Kevin was my sons, Josh Tatum's, HERO! You also know that he has been told he can never play ball again and when they told him my mind went straight to Kevin and you and Mrs. Myra! It has really changed him and I worry at times if this could be him and how could I make it through the way you two have! You both know I love you both and I have for as long as I can remember! You have my love, my prayers, my condolences and my sympathy!

Raymond and Myra I know you are hurting. The loss of a child is the hardest thing that can ever happen. But I know you and Kevin were at peace as to where his next stop would be. No words can express my love for all of you and my feelings for Kevin's children. He was a fine man and Still is.
