“ Aunnt Peggy would babysit my bothers and me when we were little, great memories. When I started first grade and had to ride the bus, she would sing to me. It was very comforting. The song she sang to me that was my favorite was "Hush little baby, don't say a word, mama's gonna buy you a mocking bird..." Later she took my preschool daughter to dance lessons once a week. I have many fond memories of her. My condolences go out to New, Ronnie, Kevin, and their families

I don't know why the names came out wrong. It's Neal, Ronnie, and Kevin.
