“ The grief that is felt when we lose a loved one may seem unbearable. At such times, we can go to God's word for comfort. God too feels hurt when an individual dies. That is why the encouragement found at Revelation 21:4 assure us that "He will remove sorrow and death will be no more." According to this scripture, there will come a time when those we have lost in death will be brought back by means of a resurrection by the Almighty God. May the family find the comfort that God makes available to all persons.

“ Gloria, I'm so sorry you have lost your son. Read it in the paper today. I remember that when we worked at Greil Memorial Hospital that we had children about the same age. My heart goes out to you at this difficult time. You and your family are in my prayers. Barbara Estes Moody

Randy, you were such a very special person to our family. I cannot express how much I love you and how hard it will be to not have you in our lives. You will always be in our hearts and we appreciate everything you brought into our lives. Who can I find that will be as fun to rag each other over football? NO ONE! You could so quickly bring a smile and laughter from each of us. You invited us into your fabulous family and they accepted us with loving arms and we could see how you easy it was for you to be so kind, loving and giving. We thank you for that and now we have an additional family that we love deeply and will always have and loved. Rest in Peace, my Dad, you will be always be in our hearts and we will always love you. My only prayers is for you to know how much we really love you!!
