We were shocked and saddened to hear. He was such a great neighbor and always made me smile.

“ Dear Evelyn, Father announced in church about Ray's death and even though we expected it, it still was a shock. Ray and I used to compare doctors about our health issues and we both agreed that none of them were helping. We would both laugh about it with hopes of finding another doctor that would help us. Ray touched everyone with his sense of humor and we will miss him terribly - as will you.

I'm sending this to to because Ed and I will be out of town from Dec. 10 - 23.

Our thoughts are with you and pray that God will give you added strength.

Our deepest sorrows,
Ed and Marge Leader
